Get Results Without Doing Damage

45-second intro:

Our next speaker began her career in ministry, earning her M.Div. from Princeton Theological Seminary and working for a year as a chaplain before moving into retail management and higher education, including time in the Office of the President at The Ohio State University. From there she moved into full-time culture-change facilitation, leading adult learning initiatives for major enterprises including Hertz Global Holdings. She spent six years leading workshops and retreats as part of enterprise-wide culture change initiatives at Hertz and Ohio State and has logged over 3,600 coaching hours. She holds the Master Certified Coach credential from the International Coaching Federation, the field's highest designation.

She believes empathy without accountability isn't kindness so much as negligence. And she's built a body of work around proving that you don't have to choose between the two.

Please welcome Amy Kay Watson.
